

G18/1, Nizamuddin West, New Delhi 110013.

Collaborative Research and Dissemination (CORD) is looking for Delhi-based junior and senior researchers for two studies:

1. A qualitative study on Public-Private Partnership in Education (in partnership with University of Cambridge) – August 2008 to March 2009
2. A quantitative and qualitative study on the Educational Experiences of Children Living in Inter-State Border Areas (AP-Orissa; MP-Chhattisgarh, Bihar-Jharkhand) – September 2008 to March 2009

1. Quantitative Research

Minimum requirement

- MA in Economics, Statistics
- Sound academic background
- Sound knowledge of quantitative data analysis tools and methods
- Writing ability

The research would involve

- Fieldwork/ Field Supervision (could be remote areas for study 2)
- Cleaning and managing data
- Data analysis and writing

2. Qualitative Research

Minimum requirement

- MA in social sciences (Pref. Sociology, Political Science, Education)
- Sound academic background
- Sensitivity to people
- Fluency in Hindi and English (for study no 1)
- Writing ability

Knowledge of any of the local languages would be useful for study no 2

The research would involve

- Fieldwork in urban and rural sites (could be remote for study 2)
- Recording/documenting
- Data coding, analysis and writing

Ability to work hard, computer skills and knowledge of data coding and analysis applications are essential. Readiness to work on more than one project at the same time is desirable.

Remuneration will depend on academic qualification, relevance of experience and role to be played in the project. (in the range of Rs 15000 to Rs 25000)

Applications should be sent to

CORD
G18/1, Nizamuddin West;
New Delhi 110013.

e-mail: cordindia@gmail.com;

website: www.cordindia.com.